Lions Club Arranges Mosquito Abatement In Antioch Monday

Riverside Firm to Spray Fog Over Village Between 7 and 7:30 p. m.

Not only is the Lions Club determined there will be no mosquitos on the carnival grounds next week, but in the surrounding community as well.

Permission was obtained from the village board Tuesday evening to spray Antioch and places which are breeding places for the mosquitos.

The Lions are going on the theory, it is said, that it will do little good to spray the grounds if the mosquitos immediately pour in from surrounding areas.

The "fogging" of the village will be done by the Clarke Outdoor Spraying Co. of Riverside, Ill., a company that does the spraying for the Cook County Forest preserve and has sprayed Barrington and other villages.

The spraying of the mosquito killing fog will be done between 7 and 7:30 p. m. Monday. The fog will linger only 15 to 20 minutes and is harmless to animals and man. If any person is concerned over procedure, he may remain in doors for the 15 minute period, President Ted Larson said.

Interim Census for Antioch Considered By Village Trustees

Members of the village board would like an interim census for Antioch.

This was evidenced Tuesday evening in the board's special meeting when $1,500 was added to the contingency fund item of $500 in the annual appropriation ordinance to provide the cost of the recount.

If the board can get the money the census will be arranged. Back of the plan to count noses again is the fact that the bigger the population the more motor fuel tax the village will receive from the state. The amount is said to be in excess of $3.60 per person and the cost of the special census might be repaid the first year.

Deerfield, Grayslake and Libertyville already have benefited from an increase in their population figures through recounts.

"It's ridiculous to say that we only have 1,300 population in Antioch," commented Trustee Edmund Vos. "Count the number of new houses we have and you can readily see we have grown."

Whether the board will call for the census this year or wait until the new homes are erected in the Knollwood Subdivision is not known, but Antioch's population is expected to grow considerably in that area during the next year or two.

Crime Detector Unit Exhibited in Antioch

A truck bearing a wide assortment of equipment of the type used in crime prevention and detection will be in Antioch this week for inspection by local police and citizens in general.

The 16-ton mobile crime laboratory is sponsored by the Great Central Insurance Co., which specializes in crime insurance such as holdup and burglary.

Originally owned and operated as a mobile crime detection laboratory and disaster unit by the Division of State Highway Police of Illinois, it was decommissioned in December 1949, and later acquired by the insurance company.

It displays a variety of fortification and protective equipment to make places of business and homes secure against the attack of burglars. A lie detector is on display.

Republican Women Urged To Vote for Amendment

All voters are urged to vote "Yes" on the blue ballot calling for reapportionment of representation at the state assembly by the board of the Township Republican Women of Lake county. The reapportionment will be sought through an amendment to the constitution at the election in November.

New Water Rates Go Into Effect in August; Big Users Hardest Hit

When Antioch residents get their water bills in the next ten days most of them will be aware of a few cents increase in cost, but a few will notice a decided jump. The latter are the users of large volumes on which the rate was advanced three months ago.

Clerk Clarence Shultis said that the only difference to most water users is the elimination of the discount which in many instances will amount to about 12 cents. Should the bill not be paid promptly there is a 10 per cent penalty.

The 50 per cent or more increase to the large users resulted from the advice of the bonding company which said that the burden has been too much on the small user, and said that in deriving more revenue to pay off the new bonds issued to drill a new water well and lay a new sewer line, rates in the higher consumption ought to be increased.

Committee for Pool Meets Wed. Evening; To Seek Information

Possibility of the erection of a community swimming pool for Antioch is one step closer to reality today as a result of a meeting of a committee last night. The committee, headed by Ed Kugle, was appointed two weeks ago by President Ted Larson of the Antioch Lions club.

No action was taken at the meeting other than plans to visit a number of pools in the vicinity and especially the Clarendon Hills, Ill., pool which was recently completed, as a venture of the Lions Club of that City.

Tentative plans of the committee call for a large amount of "spade work" in getting together facts and figures, after which an attempt to organize a larger committee on a community basis will be made.

Rain Fails to Stop Band Concert Tues.; Played Under Shelter

Kenosha Youth Swing Band Plays Several Numbers As Guests

The Antioch Community band and its guest, Courtesy Youth Swing band of Kenosha, were not deterred by their bi-weekly concert by rain Tuesday evening.

When showers drove the bandsmen from their stand at the park near the water tower, they sought shelter under the canopy of the Antioch Rescue Squad building where room for them was made by running the truck out into the open.

The audience, sheltered from rain in parked cars, enjoyed the concert and voiced approval by the loud and long sounding of horns.

The Kenosha swing band, comprising mostly those of early teen age played several numbers under the direction of Anthony J. Ritacci. Their selections included "The Creep," and "Harlem Nocturne". Special selections of the Antioch band were a trombone trio "Trombrero," by Louis Horton, Fred Walters and Leonard Roblin.

A fantasy "Wizard of Oz," in which tunes from the motion picture by that name were used, was played by the community band, with Wendy Midgley playing the bells.

The next concert will be one week from next Tuesday.

The first no-hit game of the season in the Antioch Little League was pitched Sunday afternoon by Pyle of the Cubs. The Sox nosed out the Giants 6 to 5, and the Cubs 5 to 4. The Dodgers did the same for the Yanks 4 to 3, and after humbling the Giants 10 to 4. The Yanks ran up a 12 to 2 score over the Tigers, who lost the game on errors.

Young Firemen Develop Speed Answering Calls
Antioch has a cracking good fire department in the making.

Not that the departments of the past haven't been good, but the older members are not as active as they used to be and the younger men are now taking over.

"They sure have speed," commented Clarence Shultis, veteran secretary of the department.

"The siren is only half through blowing before the trucks are on their way," he observed.

A squad of the younger members are practicing almost nightly in water battle tactics. By next year they should be winning county contests.

Raymond Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern E. Heath of Channel Lake, was credited by New York newspapers with having made heroic efforts to save an unidentified young woman from drowning Saturday, July 10 in that city.

Said the Times:
"As 100 persons watched, a dark young girl, clad entirely in black drowned herself in the Hudson river at the 79th st. Yacht Basin yesterday."

"Strollers told police that at 4:40 p. m. the girl wearing a black blouse and black pedal pusher slacks, walked to a railing of the yacht landing, slipped off her flat-heeled slippers, and stepped into the water."

"Third Class Steward Raymond Heath of the Navy Shore Patrol plunged in immediately, alternately diving and rising for air until restrained by police."

"The crew of Launch 9, Harbor Precinct, recovered the girl's body two blocks upstream an hour and a half later. The girl was about 22 years old, 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighed 105 pounds, was slim and had black hair and brown eyes."

Mr. Heath was aboard the USS Cadmus, AR-14, taking a 9-day cruise and spent the weekend in New York City. He returned to Norfolk, Va., where his wife is staying last Thursday.

The story of his heroic efforts was carried by all four New York newspapers.

Raymond graduated from Antioch Township High School in 1949 and is well known in this community.

Two soldiers and a girl friend from Chicago were also slightly hurt in the accident. She will be able to participate in the crowning, as the injury will not show, and will have been healed by Marine Day.

Village Board Reduces Appropriation $32,959 This Year Over 1953-4

Antioch one of Few Villages to Show Cut in Amount That May Be Spent

While other villages announce increases in their annual appropriations, Antioch this year reports a big cut.

The total appropriation as provided in an ordinance passed by the village board in special session Tuesday evening was $86,974 in contrast to $119,933 last year.

The trustees quickly announced however, that the big cut was largely the reduction of the water and sewer appropriation. Where last year $50,000 was appropriated to provide for the new water well and water and sewer extension lines, only $5,000 was reserved this year.

The appropriation for the general fund this year was $51,350 in contrast to $51,733 last year and the water and sewer items totaled $35,624 this year in contrast to $59,700 last year.

The appropriation ordinance is a puzzling document even to an occasional trustee. The law of Illinois stipulates that no money can be spent until it is first appropriated, that is, set apart for a particular use. This doesn't mean that the money is available, but if the money is ever obtained, it can be spent for the designated use.

After the money is appropriated, then the board seeks money through a levy and hopes that the tax receipts will be sufficient to meet the needs.

Last year Antioch appropriated $119,933 and spent $82,309.62, a difference of $37,623.38.

Usually the appropriation is set plenty high so that the board can act if it finds the money and sees fit to spend it. The trustees want no lack of appropriation standing in the way.

Money for expenditures on parking meters was placed in a separate department this year. Trustees complained that the costs of repairs on the parking meters is excessively high; not that the village is charged too much for repairs, but the meters call for repair too often.

The $5,000 appropriated for the parking meter fund includes the $3,000 salary of an officer checking them.

The itemized appropriation measure may be found elsewhere in this newspaper.

Rack of Hay Burns on Highway East of Village; Cause of Fire Unknown

Although the Antioch fire department made a quick run, it was not able to extinguish a blaze that consumed four tons of hay and a rack belonging to the Wolff Bros. farm at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday.

A farm employe, Frank Nelson, was pulling the rack of hay with a tractor on the Deep Lake road near Rte. 173 Tuesday afternoon when a passing motorist told him smoke was coming from the hay.

Nelson pulled the tractor and rack off the highway just a few feet from the drive to the Wolff barnyard and summoned the fire department. The department arrived soon after with two truckloads of water but the blaze had too good a start and the hay and rack were consumed.

That the fire was noticed before Nelson drove into the barn was considered fortunate because the barn might have been burned too.

Nelson's outfit was the middle of a caravan of three tractors and racks, but the driver behind could not inform him of the blaze because of the speed they were traveling.

Cause of the fire is not known. A farm spokesman speculated that a passing motorist might have flipped a cigaret onto the hayrack.

The loss of the hay was estimated at $100 and the rack at $350.

Fox Lake Girl Killed In Car Collision North of Salem, Wis., Sunday

Margie Watts, 18, Grant High School graduate and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Watts of Fox Lake, was killed in a car collision at Rte. 43 and 74 north of Salem in Kenosha county Sunday afternoon.

Also injured were the girl's sister, Karen, 11, who was bruised and scratched about the face and legs, and her mother, Mrs. Billie Watts, 49, who suffered a crushed hand and other injuries.

Their car driven by Margie was struck by a car driven by Floyd Gutormsen, 37, Kenosha attorney. His wife suffered a broken ankle.

Miss Watts was pronounced dead on her arrival at the Burlington, Wis. hospital.

A Fair Price

The coal industry is well equipped to serve this nation. Its reserves are sufficient for centuries to come. Its physical plant is completely up-to-date and the finest on earth. Its managers and technicians and workers are highly skilled.

Yet the industry faces very serious problems, over some of which it has no control.

The mine owners have spent huge sums for extraordinary machines which produce and process coal more efficiently and economically. But the savings have been siphoned off by increasing costs which have literally done away with profit in many operations. It should be obvious to anyone that only a profitable coal industry can maintain the health and strength necessary to serve this country well. And all agree that in the years to come the demand for coal will be far greater than at present.

The president of the National Coal Association recently said that the greatest need is an improved realization, on the part of federal and state authorities, producers, and consumers that "... the coal industry must ask and receive a fair price for its product if it is to remain healthy." That means, in part, that within the industry itself action must be taken to keep prices at levels that will return some profit. And it means also that consumers of coal must understand that their own interests will be damaged by buying policies that force the price of coal down to levels where the strength of the industry is undermined, and its potentialities for future service imperiled.

More Power to Them

It is heartening to note that nations, as well as individuals, are beginning to do things for themselves, instead of waiting for political handouts.

For instance, Holland has rolled out the "welcome" mat for the investor. It has cut red tape for industries wishing to locate there. It offers favorable taxes and peaceful labor-management relations. Capital is pouring in for all manner of industries.

In our own country Indiana advertises that it has no state debt, no "nuisance" or "penalty" taxes, third lowest unemployment tax in the U. S., low cost government, good labor relations, abundant electric power, raw materials, accessible markets and excellent transportation, plus many other advantages for industries and individuals.

Down in the great Peninsula State, the Florida Power and Light Company, seeking to encourage industry and business investments, points out the advantages of the "business climate" in the state where labor and industry pull together, where citizens favor well managed private industry as against socialist government operations, where no punitive laws hamper progress and where taxes are reasonable and fair.

Then comes Minneapolis, promoting taconite, Minnesota's billion dollar baby, that will build new communities, offer new business opportunities and maintain Minnesota's leadership in the production of iron ore.

Thus do countries and communities promote their own destinies instead of crying for public handouts, that cause debt and stagnation rather than prosperity.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

In this essay we will delve into and survey the simple question of "what is socialism and who is a 'Socialist'?"—and why has such a simple query been made so dubious. You go to work and look at the ballot on election day and "socialists" on any ticket are scarce as geese or chicken teeth.

In Europe every Party has the word "Socialist" hitched on with some other name. And look at Europe—needin' somebody to keep 'em balled out no end. When socialism comes in, taxes dry up—governments and cities and burgs pay no taxes. Whoever is left has the fun of making up the deficits.

Now, you accuse somebody you might run across down on Main Street of being a Socialist—and somebody is gonna get hurt, most likely. But I deduct it is just the word we don't like—we don't mind being a socialist under some other name. Look at government in business' across this fair land. And wherever you see a town in a dilemma on where to get more do-re-mi, you will likely find Mr. SNAFU trying to run some local citizens out of business. Try and figure out how you think your own business would do if the City Hall took it over. Socialism has its nose under our tent—right now—and then some. Our bifocals need a valve grinder—or something.

Yours with the low down,

Sewing Teacher Puts Constitution On 70-Yd. Cloth

NEW YORK—Ann Necchi, a sewing teacher, could be called the modern Betsy Ross, for she is working on an unusual task.

Miss Necchi is working on the mammoth task of sewing the complete Constitution of the United States, more than 10,000 words, on a zig-zag machine. She is sewing the Constitution on a 70 yard piece of blue felt 18 inches wide. The letters are approximately a half inch high and are being sewn in red and white thread. She estimates that it will take 124,000 yards of thread to complete the job.

Miss Necchi explains that once she is through with the work she is doing on the Constitution, she plans to exhibit it at Necchi sewing schools throughout the country and then give it to the Library of Congress. She recently completed a nation-wide tour where millions of people watched her work on her unusual project at fairs, expositions, and home shows.

The sewing expert says the script she is using in the task is more legible than her regular handwriting. "I guess I am a little more careful with my penmanship when I am at a sewing machine," she explains. Doting her "I's" and crossing her "y's" slows her up a little but outside of this she moves along at a rapid pace.

German Football Team in Milk Bowl

BRYAN, Texas—A team of small-fry football players, selected by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and the Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany are to be flown to Houston, Texas, December 1 to meet the Texas champions in the Sixth Annual Milk Bowl.

The event will have national radio, TV (film) movie, press, and magazine coverage, plus the appearance of film notables. Live telecast may be added.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City has indicated that an official reception will be given the German youngsters, probably the first Europeans to come to this country to play American football.

Selection of the German team was the result of world-wide publicity, in which several countries had small-fry possibilities: Canada, Israel, Mexico, in addition to U.S. Air Forces, Europe.

The Milk Bowl is listed as one of the major youth promotions, along with the Little League and the Soap Box Derby. The event has the endorsement of Governor Allan Shivers as well as the Texas Legislature.

Islanders Fear Sharks Less Than Starfish

WASHINGTON—It might seem odd that in a region infested with sharks one of the creatures most dreaded by the natives should be one seemingly harmless as a starfish. But this is actually the case on Ifaluk Atoll in the Caroline Islands.

The starfish from Ifaluk Atoll is a giant among his kind—2 feet or more across—and has 12-15 short, stubby arms radiating out from the broad disk like the spokes of a wheel. Unlike most other starfishes, it is densely covered with sharp, brittle spines, those on the back an inch or more in length and tipped like needles. Because of its mottled reddish, olive and gray coloration it blends perfectly with the bottom on the shallows and reefs where it lurks. It is thus an immediate menace to the islanders, who spend much time wading about in shoal waters.

Most Homes Are Kept Too Cool in Summer

MINNEAPOLIS—Hot weather is in the offing and, according to insurance doctors, we should take better care of ourselves. They say that in movie theatres and business houses and in most homes with air conditioning, temperatures in summer are kept many degrees too cold for health and comfort.

Going from a 80- or 85-degree afternoon into a 70- or 75-degree chill invites summer colds, sore throats and digestive upsets. Returning to the outside heat from such low temperatures demands too wide an adjustment to expect the body to make so quickly; one is especially vulnerable to heat effects at such a time, say the doctors.

They recommend inside temperature be regulated at 10 degrees below outside temperatures.

We Can't KM

CHICAGO—Americans who kid their British cousins because at 4 o'clock "everything stops for tea" might as well face the facts—they're copying the custom with a twist: Every morning 36 million Americans now stop work—for coffee.

— ANTIOCH, ILLINOIS —

You get Tomorrow's Style in Today's Buick

It's a Million Dollar Ride - and no foolin'

YOU can see for yourself the gay and gorgeous styling that's sure to be the fresh note next year, too.

And you can easily learn that here is power a-plenty—the highest V8 power, Series for Series, in the annals of Buick history.

But what you can never know, till you try it yourself, is the feel of a Buick in motion.

It's a ride as precision-soft and firm as only coiled steel can make it.

Yes, coil springs on all four wheels. And a full-length torque-tube drive for true tracking. And a massive X-braced frame for solid steadiness. And specially calibrated shock absorbers, V-braced struts, wide-rim wheels, a unique front-end geometry—plus a host of other betterments too numerous to mention.

You feel the result of this advanced engineering every mile you drive—in what is literally and figuratively a Million Dollar Ride.

You feel it in the superb and buoyant cradling. You feel it in the serene levelness of your going over ruts and ridges. You feel it in the precise snubbing of jars and jounces. You feel it in a new kind of steadiness, handling ease, curve control.

Only thing for you to do, we believe, is to come try this miracle of motion—and we'll be glad to oblige.

That way you'll also learn firsthand about the style, the power, and the value that have made Buick such a best-selling success this year. For Buick today is outselling all other cars in America except two of the so-called "low-price three."

(Smart tip: With Buick such a beautiful buy this year, think what a winner it's bound to be at trade-in time! Come see us this week!)

4-H Home-Ec. Show
At Wauconda Monday;
Winners at Co. Fair

One thousand 4-H Club girls, leaders and parents are expected to gather at the Wauconda Grade School Auditorium Monday, July 26, for the Annual 4-H Club show. The program will begin at 9 a. m. when all the girls who have studied clothing will have their garments judged.

The morning program, open to the public, begins at 10 a. m. when the foods and flower arrangement clubs will participate in a demonstration contest. In the afternoon between 1:30 and 3:30, will be the time for the annual style revue when over 300 girls will participate on the stage showing off the garments they have made in their club work this year. From the girls who participate in the demonstration contest and the style revue 18 will be chosen to represent Lake County at the Illinois State fair to be on Aug. 12-15.

On Wednesday, July 28, each 4-H club will have the opportunity to set up an educational booth at the Wauconda Grade School auditorium to be on display for the four days of the fair.

On Thursday evening, July 29, 4-Hers will put on a show on the outdoor platform. Some of the acts will be those which the clubs presented at the county and district Share-the-Fun festivals.

The public is invited to the Demonstration contest, the style revue, and to the fair to see the fine work our 4-H clubs have been doing this year.

The County committee in charge of arrangements for the county show, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Volk, home adviser, and Miss Orpha Crook, assistant home adviser, consists of: Mrs. John Vondracek, chairman, Mrs. Roy Fleming, Mrs. Warren Chard, Mrs. Robert Bainbridge, Mrs. Roy Grubo, Mrs. Derrel Merchant and Miss Donna Murrie.

Mrs. Jerry Rockow, Harden st., returned recently from Victory Memorial hospital after undergoing surgery a week ago.

WORK

No man is born into the world whose work is not born with him.

—Lowell

I never did anything worth doing by accident, nor did any of my inventions come by accident; they came by work.

—Edison

A day's work is a day's work, neither more nor less, and the man who does it needs a day's sustenance, a night's repose, and due leisure, whether he be painter or ploughman.

—G. B. Shaw

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

—James Howell

I like work; it fascinates me, I can sit and look at it for hours. I love to keep it by me, and the idea of getting rid of it nearly breaks my heart.

—Jerome K. Jerome

Goodness and philanthropy begin with work and never stop working.
